Sam Memorial Trophy for the Versatile Beardie

This trophy will be awarded annually to a Bearded Collie belonging to a current Member of the SCBCC who has shown an ability to take part with some degree of success in a range of activities. We are looking for a typical Member of the Breed with a sound temperament, generous nature and boundless enthusiasm for working with his/her owner.

The activities may include the following:

- Beardie Working Tests (Intermediate or Senior)
- Obedience Competitions
- Agility
- Working Trials
- PAT dogs or equivalent
- Breed Showing
- Herding
- Search and Rescue
- Beardie Pentathlon
- Canine Good Citizens Test (Silver or Gold)

Other activities will be considered on their merits. In the case of competitive activities, the comparative working level of nominees will be taken into account. Dogs will be expected to have taken part in at least three activities during two previous years.

The trophy will be presented annually with the other Club Points Trophies at the SCBCC Championship show.

Members wishing their dogs to be considered for the trophy will be invited to send in their applications with evidence of activities undertaken to the SCBCC Committee. Members may also nominate dogs who they feel would be eligible for the trophy; the Committee will designate a representative to scrutinise the applications in conjunction with the donor of the trophy, Mrs E Richardson.

On return of the trophy each recipient will receive a small trophy to keep permanently.
